

II CDP MEETING

June 3-4 2026

*Centro per la Terapia
Cellulare del Diabete*

PROGRAM

A unique event dedicated to the latest discoveries in the field of pancreatic islet transplantation.

Bridging academic research, clinical practice, and technological innovation.

Debating the grand challenges shaping the future of diabetes treatment."

Two days of meeting dedicated to update our progress on a functional cure for diabetes - the central mission of the Chicago Diabetes Project (CDP).

Experiences from France, Spain, Switzerland, Czech Republic and United States.

Progresses on new biocompatible materials and microencapsulated islets.

Consensus on pancreas and islets transplantation indication

Hosted by

Lucrezia Furian, Full Professor of Surgery Dept. of Surgical, Oncological and Gastroenterological Sciences, University of Padova. Chair of the Kidney and Pancreas Transplantation Unit, University Hospital of Padova

Jose Oberholzer, Full Professor and Chairman of the Department of Visceral and Transplant Surgery, Head of the Section for HPB and Transplant Surgery, University of Zurich

SUPPORTED BY AN INDEPENDENT EDUCATIONAL GRANT FROM